CAP. XLV.

An Act for making a Turnpike Road between Stone Creek and Sunk Island Church in the County of York, and between Sunk Island Church and Patrington Haven, and for consolidating with such Roads the present Turnpike Road from Sunk Island Church to Ottringham, and for constructing Quays and Wharfs at Stone Creek. [30th June 1852.]

'WHEREAS under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Ninety-one, a Turnpike Road has been constructed from the Town of Ottringham in the East Riding of the County of York to the Church in the Parish of Sunk Island in the same Riding, and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, together with such other Persons as should be appointed as therein mentioned, were by the said Act constituted the Trustees for carrying into execution the several Acts for regulating Turnpike Roads, together with the said Act now in recital; and it was by the said Act provided that it should be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings to advance any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole Five thousand Pounds towards the Payment of the Expenses of obtaining the same Act and of carrying the same into execution, such Sums to be repaid, with Interest after the Rate of Five per Cent. per Annum; and it was also enacted, that it should be lawful for the Commissioners for the Issue of Exchequer Bills to advance for the Purposes of the said Act any Sum or Sums in Exchequer Bills, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Five thousand Pounds, to be secured by an Assignment to the said last-mentioned Commissioners of so much of the Tolls, Rates, and Duties thereby authorized to be raised as should be a sufficient Security for the Repayment of the said Exchequer Bills as therein is mentioned: And whereas the Costs of obtaining the said Act and of carrying the same into execution were paid by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings out of Monies received by them on account of the ordinary Land Revenue of the Crown; and the Tolls, Rates, and Duties by the said Act authorized to be raised have been insufficient to discharge any Part of the Monies so advanced: And whereas it would be of great Benefit, not only to Her Majesty as the Owner of Sunk Island aforesaid, but to the other Owners, Inhabitants, and Occupiers of Lands in the Parishes of Sunk Island, Ottringham, and Patrington, and to the Public at large, if Powers were given to widen and convert into and use and maintain as a Turnpike Road the existing Occupation Road leading from the Turnpike Road between Patrington Haven and the Town of Patrington, across Patrington Haven Bridge or Clough in the Parish of Patrington in the said East Riding of the County of York to the North Channel Bridge or Clough in the Parishes of Patrington and Sunk Island, or One of them; and also to make and maintain a new Turnpike Road to commence on the North Side of Patrington Reservoir or Drain in the Parish of Patrington aforesaid, to run from thence across a Bridge to be built over the said Reservoir or Drain, and from thence to the Occupation Road leading from the said Turnpike Road between Patrington Haven and the Town of Patrington aforesaid, and across Patrington Haven Bridge or Clough aforesaid, to the said North Channel Bridge or Clough; and also to make and maintain a new Turnpike Road in continuation of the last-mentioned Road from the North Side of the said North Channel Bridge in the Parish of Patrington aforesaid to the East End of the Island Highway or Road called Brick Lane in the Parish of Sunk Island aforesaid, and to convert into and use and maintain as a Turnpike Road the said Brick Lane to its Junction with the existing Turnpike Road from Ottringham to Sunk Island Church aforesaid; and also to convert into and use and maintain as a Turnpike Road the Island Highway or Road leading from Sunk Island Church aforesaid in a Westward and Southward Direction to or near to the Harbour called Stone Creek, in the Parish of Sunk Island; and also to consolidate the said existing Turnpike Road from Ottringham to Sunk Island Church with such new Turnpike Roads as aforesaid, and to place the whole under the Management of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues; and also to construct Wharfs, Quays, and Landing Places, with or without Warehouses, Sheds, or other convenient Buildings, at Stone Creek aforesaid, and to enable the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues to levy such Tolls, Dues, and Rates as herein-after mentioned for the Use of the said Turnpike Roads, Wharfs, Quays, and Landing Places as aforesaid: And whereas Plans and Sections of the said intended Turnpike Roads and Works, together with Books of Reference thereto, have been deposited for public Inspection in the Office of the Clerk of the Peace for the East Riding of the County of York, and Plans and Sections of so much of the said intended Turnpike Roads and Works as are comprised within or relate to the said Parishes of Ottringham, Patrington, and Sunk Island respectively, together with Books of Reference thereto, have been deposited for public Inspection with the Parish Clerks of the same Parishes respectively at their respective Places of Abode:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; Misjoinder of Defendants may be amended before or at Trial.

XXXVII. It shall and may be lawful for the Court or a Judge in the Case of the Joinder of too many Defendants in any Action on Contract, at any Time before the Trial of such Cause, to order that the Name or Names of One or more of such Defendants be struck out, if it shall appear to such Court or Judge that Injustice will not be done by such Amendment; and the Amendment shall be made upon such Terms as the Court or Judge, by whom such Amendment is made, shall think proper; and in case it shall appear at the Trial of any Action on Contract that there has been a Misjoinder of Defendants, such Misjoinder may be amended, as a Variance, at the Trial, in like Manner as the Misjoinder of Plaintiffs has been herein-before directed to be amended, and upon such Terms as the Court, or Judge, or other presiding Officer, by whom such Amendment is made, shall think proper.

Provision in the Case of subsequent Proceedings against the Persons named in a Plea in Abatement for Nonjoinder of Defendants.

XXXIX. In all Cases after such Plea in Abatement and Amendment, if it shall appear upon the Trial of the Action that the Person or Persons so named in such Plea in Abatement was or were jointly liable with the original Defendant or Defendants, the original Defendant or Defendants shall be entitled as against the Plaintiff to the Costs of such Plea in Abatement and Amendment; but if at such Trial it shall appear that the original Defendant or any of the original Defendants is or are liable, but that One or more of the Persons named in such Plea in Abatement is or are not liable as a contracting Party or Parties, the Plaintiff shall nevertheless be entitled to Judgment against the other Defendant or Defendants who shall appear to be liable; and every Defendant who is not so liable shall have Judgment, and shall be entitled to his Costs as against the Plaintiff, who shall be allowed the same, together with the Costs of the Plea in Abatement and Amendment, as Costs in the Cause against the original Defendant or Defendants who shall have so pleaded in Abatement the Nonjoinder of such Person: Provided that any such Defendant who shall have so pleaded in Abatement shall be at liberty on the Trial to adduce Evidence of the Liability of the Defendants named by him in such Plea in Abatement.

Different Causes of Action may be joined, but separate Trials may be ordered.

XLI. Causes of Action, of whatever kind, provided they be by and against the same Parties and in the same Rights, may be joined in the same Suit; but this shall not extend to Replevin or Ejectment; and where Two or more of the Causes of Action so joined are local, and arise in different Counties, the Venue may be laid in either of such Counties; but the Court or a Judge shall have Power to prevent the Trial of different Causes of Action together, if such Trial would be inexpedient, and in such Case such Court or Judge may order separate Records to be made up, and separate Trials to be had.

Pleas not to be repeated.

LXXXVIII. No Plea, which has already been pleaded to the Declaration, shall be pleaded to such new Assignment, except a Plea in Denial, unless by Leave of the Court or a Judge; and such Leave shall only be granted upon satisfactory Proof that the Repetition of such Plea is essential to a Trial on the Merits.

And with respect to the Effect of Death, Marriage, and Bankruptcy upon the Proceedings in an Action, be it enacted as follows:

Action not to abate by Death.

CXXXV. The Death of a Plaintiff or Defendant shall not cause the Action to abate, but it may be continued as herein-after mentioned.

Proceedings in case of Death of One or more of several Plaintiffs or Defendants.

CXXXVI. If there be Two or more Plaintiffs or Defendants, and One or more of them should die, if the Cause of such Action shall survive to the surviving Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or against the surviving Defendant or Defendants, the Action shall not be thereby abated; but such Death being suggested upon the Record, the Action shall proceed at the Suit of the surviving Plaintiff or Plaintiffs against the surviving Defendant or Defendants.

Proceeding in case of sole Plaintiff.

CXXXVII. In case of the Death of a sole Plaintiff or sole surviving Plaintiff, the legal Representative of such Plaintiff may, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, enter a Suggestion of the Death, and that he is such legal Representative, and the Action shall thereupon proceed; and, if such Suggestion be made before the Trial, the Truth of the Suggestion shall be tried thereat, together with the Title of deceased Plaintiff, and such Judgment shall follow upon the Verdict in favour of or against the Person making such Suggestion, as if such Person were originally the Plaintiff.

Proceeding upon Death of sole or sole surviving Defendant.

CXXXVIII. In case of the Death of a sole Defendant or sole surviving Defendant, where the Action survives, the Plaintiff may make a Suggestion, either in any of the Pleadings, if the Cause has not arrived at Issue, or in a Copy of the Issue, if it has so arrived, of the Death, and that a Person named therein is the Executor or Administrator of the Deceased; and may thereupon serve such Executor or Administrator with a Copy of the Writ and Suggestion, and with a Notice, signed by the Plaintiff or his Attorney, requiring such Executor or Administrator to appear within Eight Days after Service of the Notice, inclusive of the Day of such Service, and that in default of his so doing the Plaintiff may sign Judgment against him as such Executor or Administrator; and the same Proceedings may be had and taken in case of Nonappearance after such Notice, as upon a Writ against such Executor or Administrator in respect of the Cause for which the Action was brought; and in case no Pleadings have taken place before the Death, the Suggestion shall form Part of the Declaration, and the Declaration and Suggestion may be served together, and the new Defendant shall plead thereto at the same Time; and in case the Plaintiff shall have declared, but the Defendant shall not have pleaded before the Death, the new Defendant shall plead at the same Time to the Declaration and Suggestion; and in case the Defendant shall have pleaded before the Death, the new Defendant shall be at liberty to plead to the Suggestion only by way of Denial, or such Plea as may be appropriate to and rendered necessary by his Character of Executor or Administrator, unless, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, he should be permitted to plead fresh Matter in answer to the Declaration; and in case the Defendant shall have pleaded before the Death, but the Pleadings shall not have arrived at Issue, the new Defendant, besides pleading to the Suggestion, shall continue the Pleadings to Issue in the same Manner as the Deceased might have done, and the Pleadings upon the Declaration and the Pleadings upon the Suggestion shall be tried together; and in case the Plaintiff shall recover, he shall be entitled to the like Judgment in respect of the Debt or Sum sought to be recovered and in respect of the Costs prior to the Suggestion, and in respect of the

CXL. If the Plaintiff in any Action happen to die after an Interlocutory Judgment and before a final Judgment obtained therein, the said Action shall not abate by reason thereof, if such Action might be originally prosecuted or maintained by the Executor or Administrator of such Plaintiff; and if the Defendant die after such Interlocutory Judgment and before final Judgment therein obtained, the said Action shall not abate, if such Action might be originally prosecuted or maintained against the Executor or Administrator of such Defendant; and the Plaintiff, or if he be dead after such Interlocutory Judgment, his Executors or Administrators, shall and may have a Writ of Revivor, in the Form contained in the Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed, marked No. 9., or to the like Effect, against the Defendant, if living after such Interlocutory Judgment, or if he be dead, then against his Executors or Administrators, to show Cause why Damages in such Action should not be assessed and recovered by him or them; and if such Defendant, his Executors or Administrators, shall appear at the Return of such Writ, and not show or allege any Matter sufficient to arrest the final Judgment, or shall make Default, a Writ of Inquiry of Damages shall be thereupon awarded, or the Amount, for which final Judgment is to be signed, shall be referred to One of the Masters, as herein-before provided; and upon the Return of the Writ, or Delivery of the Order with the Amount indorsed thereon to the Plaintiff, his Executors or Administrators, Judgment final shall be given for the said Plaintiff, his Executors or Administrators, prosecuting such Writ of Revivor, against such Defendant, his Executors or Administrators respectively.

Marriage not to abate Action.

CXLI. The Marriage of a Woman Plaintiff or Defendant shall not cause the Action to abate, but the Action may, notwithstanding, be proceeded with to Judgment; and such Judgment may be executed against the Wife alone, or, by Suggestion or Writ of Revivor pursuant to this Act, Judgment may be obtained against the Husband and Wife, and Execution issue thereon; and in case of a Judgment for the Wife, Execution may be issued thereupon by the Authority of the Husband without any Writ of Revivor or Suggestion; and if in any such Action the Wife shall sue or defend by Attorney appointed by her when sole, such Attorney shall have Authority to continue the Action or Defence, unless such Authority be countermanded by the Husband, and the Attorney changed according to the Practice of the Court.

Bankruptcy and Insolvency of Plaintiff, when not to abate Action.

CXLII. The Bankruptcy or Insolvency of the Plaintiff in any Action, which the Assignees might maintain for the Benefit of the Creditors, shall not be pleaded in bar to such Action, unless the Assignees shall decline to continue, and give Security for the Costs thereof, upon a Judge's Order to be obtained for that Purpose, within such reasonable Time as the Judge may order, but the Proceedings may be stayed until such Election is made; and in case the Assignees neglect or refuse to continue the Action, and give such Security within the Time limited by the Order, the Defendant may, within Eight Days after such Neglect or Refusal, plead the Bankruptcy.

Arrest of Judgment and Judgment Non obstante veredicto.

And with respect to the Proceedings upon Motions to arrest the Judgment, and for Judgment Non obstante veredicto, be it enacted as follows:

Upon Motion in arrest of Judgment, pursuant to 1 W. 4. c. 7., or for Judgment Non obstante veredicto, omitted Facts may by Leave of the Court be suggested.

CXLIII. Upon any Motion made in arrest of Judgment, or to enter an Arrest of Judgment, pursuant to the Statute passed in the First Year of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for the more speedy Judgment and Execution in Actions brought in His Majesty's Courts of Law at Westminster, and in the Court of Common Pleas of the County Palatine of Lancaster, and for amending the Law as to Judgment on a Cognovit actionem in Cases of Bankruptcy, or for Judgment Non obstante veredicto, by reason of the Non-averment of some alleged material Fact or Facts or material Allegation, or other Cause, the Party, whose Pleading is alleged or adjudged to be therein defective, may, by Leave of the Court, suggest the Existence of the omitted Fact or Facts or other Matter, which, if true, would remedy the alleged Defect; and such Suggestion may be pleaded to by the opposite Party within Eight Days after Notice thereof, or such further Time as the Court or a Judge may allow; and the Proceedings for Trial of any Issues joined upon such Pleadings shall be the same as in an ordinary Action.

Judgment to follow Result of Suggestion.

CXLIV. If the Fact or Facts suggested be admitted, or found to be true, the Party suggesting shall be entitled to such Judgment as he would have been entitled to, if such Fact or Facts or Allegations had been originally stated in such Pleading, and proved or admitted on the Trial, together with the Costs of, and occasioned by, the Suggestion and Proceedings thereon; but if such Fact or Facts be found untrue, the opposite Party shall be entitled to his Costs of, and occasioned by, the Suggestion and Proceedings thereon, in addition to any other Costs to which he may be entitled.

Costs of abortive Issues.

CXLV. Upon an Arrest of Judgment, or Judgment Non obstante veredicto, the Court shall adjudge to the Party, against whom such Judgment is given, the Costs occasioned by the Trial of any Issues of Fact, arising out of the Pleading for Defect of which such Judgment is given, upon which such Party shall have succeeded; and such Costs shall be set off against any Money or Costs adjudged to the opposite Party, and Execution may issue for the Balance, if any.

And with respect to Proceedings in Error, be it enacted as follows:

CXLVIII. A Writ of Error shall not be necessary or used in any Cause, and the Proceeding to Error shall be a Step in the Cause, and shall be taken in manner herein-after mentioned; but nothing in this Act contained shall invalidate any Proceedings already taken or to be taken by reason of any Writ of Error issued before the Commencement of this Act.

Bail in Error.

CLI. Upon any Judgment hereafter to be given in any of the said Superior Courts of Common Law in any Action, Execution shall not be stayed or delayed by Proceedings in Error, or Supersedeas thereupon, without the special Order of the Court or a Judge, unless the Person in whose Name such Proceedings in Error be brought, with Two, or, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, more than Two sufficient Sureties, such as the Court (wherein such Judgment is or shall be given) or a Judge shall allow of, shall, within Four clear Days after lodging the Memorandum alleging Error, or after the signing of the Judgment, whichever shall last happen, or before Execution executed, be bound unto the Party for whom any such Judgment is or shall be given, by Recognizance to be acknowledged in the same Court, in double the Sum adjudged to be recovered by the said Judgment, (except in case of a Penalty, and in case of a Penalty in double the Sum really due, and double the Costs,) to prosecute the Proceedings in Error with Effect, and also to satisfy and pay (if the said Judgment be affirmed, or the Proceedings in Error be discontinued by the Plaintiff therein,) all and singular the Sum or Sums of Money and Costs adjudged or to be adjudged upon the former Judgment, and all Costs and Damages to be also awarded for the delaying of Execution, and shall give Notice thereof to the Defendant in Error, or his Attorney.

CLIII. The Roll shall be made up, and the Suggestion last aforesaid entered by the Plaintiff in Error within Ten Days after the Service of the Note of the Receipt of the Memorandum alleging Error, or within such other Time as the Court or a Judge may order; and in default thereof, or of Assignment of Error in Cases where an Assignment is required, the Defendant in Error, his Executors or Administrators, shall be at liberty to sign Judgment of Non-pros.

Judgment Roll to be brought into Court instead of Transcript.

CLV. Upon such Suggestion of Error alleged and denied being entered, the Cause may be set down for Argument in the Court of Error in the Manner heretofore used; and the Judgment Roll shall, without any Writ or Return, be brought by the Master into the Court of Error in the Exchequer Chamber, before the Justices, or Justices and Barons, as the Case may be, of the other Two Superior Courts of Common Law, on the Day of its Sitting, at such Time as the Judges shall appoint, either in Term or in Vacation; or if the Proceedings in Error be before the High Court of Parliament, then before the High Court of Parliament, before or at the Time of its Sitting; and the Court of Error shall and may thereupon review the Proceedings, and give Judgment as they shall be advised thereon; and such Plaintiff may discontinue Proceedings in Error.

CLIX. The Plaintiff in Error, whether in Fact or Law, shall be at liberty to discontinue his Proceedings by giving to the Defendant in Error a Notice, headed in the Court and Cause, and signed by the Plaintiff in Error or his Attorney, stating that he discontinues such Proceedings; and thereupon the Defendant in Error may sign Judgment for the Costs of, and occasioned by, the Proceedings in Error, and may proceed upon the Judgment on which the Error was brought.

Any Person appearing to such Writ shall be at liberty to limit his Defence to a Part only of the Property mentioned in the Writ, describing that Part with reasonable Certainty in a Notice intituled in the Court and Cause, and signed by the Party appearing or his Attorney; such Notice to be served within Four Days after Appearance upon the Attorney whose Name is indorsed on the Writ, if any, and if none, then to be filed in the Master's Office; and an Appearance without such Notice confining the Defence to Part, shall be deemed an Appearance to defend for the whole.

Want of Certainty cured by Particulars.

CLXXV. Want of "reasonable Certainty" in the Description of the Property, or Part of it, in the Writ or Notice, shall not nullify them, but shall only be Ground for an Application to a Judge for better Particulars of the Land claimed or defended, which a Judge shall have Power to give in all Cases.

CLXXXI. In case the Title of the Claimant shall appear to have existed as alleged in the Writ, and at the Time of Service thereof, but it shall also appear to have expired before the Time of Trial, the Claimant shall, notwithstanding, be entitled to a Verdict according to the Fact that he was so entitled at the Time of bringing the Action and serving the Writ, and to a Judgment for his Cost of Suit.

Trial may be ordered to take place in any County.

CLXXXII. The Court or a Judge may, on the Application of either Party, order that the Trial shall take place in any County or Place other than that in which the Venue is laid; and such Order being suggested on the Record, the Trial may be had accordingly.

Nonappearance at Trial.

CLXXXIII. If the Defendant appears, and the Claimant does not appear at the Trial, the Claimant shall be non-suited; and if the Claimant appears, and the Defendant does not appear, the Claimant shall be entitled to recover as heretofore, without any Proof of his Title.

CLXXXVIII. In case of such an Action being brought by some or One of several Persons entitled as Joint Tenants, Tenants in Common, or Coparceners, any Joint Tenant, Tenant in Common, or Coparcener in possession, may, at the Time of Appearance, or within Four Days after, give Notice in the same Form as in the Notice of a limited Defence, that he or she defends as such, and admits the Right of the Claimant to an undivided Share of the Property, (stating what Share,) but denies any actual Ouster of him from the Property, and may, within the same Time, file an Affidavit stating with reasonable Certainty that he or she is such Joint Tenant, Tenant in Common, or Coparcener, and the Share of such Property to which he or she is entitled, and that he or she has not ousted the Claimant; and such Notice shall be entered in the Issue in the same Manner as the Notice limiting the Defence, and upon the Trial of such an Issue the additional Question of whether an actual Ouster has taken place shall be tried. Defence by joint Tenants, Tenants in Common, or Coparceners.

CLXXXIX. Upon the Trial of such Issue as last aforesaid, if it shall be found that the Defendant is Joint Tenant, Tenant in Common, or Coparcener with the Claimant, then the Question whether an actual Ouster has taken place shall be tried, and unless such actual Ouster shall be proved the Defendant shall be entitled to Judgment and Costs; but if it shall be found either that the Defendant is not such Joint Tenant, Tenant in Common, or Coparcener, or that an actual Ouster has taken place, then the Claimant shall be entitled to such Judgment for the Recovery of Possession and Costs. Trial and Judgment in Ejectment against Joint Tenants, Tenants in Common, and Coparceners.

CXCI. In case the Right of the deceased Claimant shall survive to another Claimant, a Suggestion may be made of the Death, which Suggestion shall not be traversable, but shall only be subject to be set aside if untrue, and the Action may proceed at the Suit of the surviving Claimant; and if such a Suggestion shall be made before the Trial, then the Claimant shall have a Verdict and recover such Judgment as aforesaid, upon its appearing that he was entitled to bring the Action either separately or jointly with the deceased Claimant. Proceedings upon Death before Trial, where Right survives.

Proceedings upon Death before Trial, where Right does not survive.

CXCIII. In case of a Verdict for Two or more Claimants, if One of such Claimants die before Execution executed, the other Claimant may, whether the legal Right to the Property shall survive or not, suggest the Death in manner aforesaid, and proceed to Judgment and Execution for Recovery of Possession of the Entirety of the Property and the Costs; but nothing herein contained shall affect the Right of the legal Representative of the deceased Claimant, or the Liability of the surviving Claimant to such legal Representative; and the Entry and Possession of such surviving Claimant under such Execution shall be considered as an Entry and Possession on behalf of such legal Representative in respect of the Share of the Property to which he shall be entitled as such Representative, and the Court may direct Possession to be delivered accordingly. Upon Death of One of several Claimants having obtained a Verdict.

CXCIV. In case of the Death of a sole Claimant, or, before Trial, of One of several Claimants, whose Right does not survive to another or others of the Claimants, the legal Representative of such Claimant may, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, enter a Suggestion of the Death, and that he is such legal Representative, and the Action shall thereupon proceed; and if such Suggestion be made before the Trial, the Truth of the Suggestion shall be tried thereat, together with the Title of the deceased Claimant, and such Judgment shall follow upon the Verdict in favour of or against the Person making such Suggestion, as herein-before provided with reference to a Judgment for or against such Claimant; and in case such Suggestion in the Case of a sole Claimant be made after Trial and before Execution executed by Delivery of Possession thereupon, and such Suggestion be denied by the Defendant within Eight Days after Notice thereof, or such further Time as the Court or a Judge may allow, then such Suggestion shall be tried; and if, upon the Trial thereof, a Verdict shall pass for the Person making such Suggestion, he shall be entitled to such Judgment as aforesaid for the Recovery of Possession, and for the Costs of and occasioned by such Suggestion; and in case of a Verdict for the Defendant such Defendant shall be entitled to such Judgment as aforesaid for Costs. Upon Death of all Defendants in Ejectment after Verdict.

On Trials after Bail found, Judge shall not stay the Execution except by Consent, or on Tenant's finding Security.

CCXV. Judge shall direct, conditioned not to commit any Waste, or Act in the Nature of Waste, or other wilful Damage, and not to sell or carry off any standing Crops, Hay, Straw, or Manure produced or made (if any) upon the Premises, and which may happen to be thereupon, from the Day on which the Verdict shall have been given to the Day on which Execution shall finally be made upon the Judgment, or the same be set aside, as the Case may be: Provided always, that the Recognizance last above mentioned shall immediately stand discharged and be of no Effect, in case Proceedings in Error shall be brought upon such Judgment, and the Plaintiff in Error shall become bound in the Manner herein-before provided.

Bail in Error to discharge such Security.

CCXVI. All Recognizances and Securities entered into as last aforesaid may and shall be taken respectively in such Manner and by and before such Persons as are provided and authorized in respect of Recognizances of Bail upon Actions and Suits depending in the Court in which any such Action of Ejectment shall have been commenced; and the Officer of the same Court with whom Recognizances of Bail are filed shall file such Recognizances and Securities, for which respectively the Sum of Two Shillings and Sixpence, and no more, shall be paid; but no Action or other Proceeding shall be commenced upon any such Recognizance or Security after the Expiration of Six Months from the Time when Possession of the Premises, or any Part thereof, shall actually have been delivered to the Landlord.

Landlord to recover Possession of Lands, &c. after Service of Writ in Ejectment.

CCXVIII. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prejudice or affect any other Right of Action or Remedy which Landlords may possess in any of the Cases herein-before provided for, otherwise than herein-before expressly enacted.

Saving of former Remedies.

In Ejectment by Mortgagee, the Mortgagor's rendering the Principal, Interest, and Costs in Court shall be deemed a full Satisfaction, and the Court may compel the Mortgagee to re-convey.

CCXX. Nothing herein contained shall extend to any Case where the Person, against whom the Redemption is or shall be prayed, shall (by Writing under his Hand, or the Hand of his Attorney, Agent, or Solicitor, to be delivered before the Money shall be brought into such Court of Law, to the Attorney or Solicitor for the other Side,) insist, either that the Party praying a Redemption has not a Right to redeem, or that the Premises are chargeable with other or different Principal Sums, than what appear on the Face of the Mortgage or shall be admitted on the other Side; or to any Case where the Right of Redemption to the mortgaged Lands and Premises in question in any Cause or Suit shall be controverted or questioned by or between different Defendants in the same Cause or Suit; or shall be any Prejudice to any subsequent Mortgage or subsequent Incumbrance, anything herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Not to extend to Cases where the Right of Redemption is controverted, or the Money due not adjusted; or to prejudice any subsequent Mortgage.

CCXXI. The several Courts and the Judges thereof respectively shall and may exercise over the Proceedings the like Jurisdiction as heretofore exercised in the Action of Ejectment, so as to ensure a Trial of the Title, and of actual Ouster, when necessary, only, and for all other Purposes for which

Power to Judges to make Rules and frame Writs and Proceedings.

And in order to enable the Courts and Judges to carry this Act thoroughly into effect, and to enable them from Time to Time to make Rules and Regulations and to frame Writs and Proceedings for that Purpose, be it enacted as follows:

General Rules may be made by the Judges.

CCXXIII. It shall be lawful for the Judges of the said Courts, or any Eight or more of them, of whom the Chiefs of each of the said Courts shall be Three, from Time to Time to make all such General Rules and Orders for the effectual Execution of this Act, and of the Intention and Object hereof, and for fixing the Costs to be allowed for and in respect of the Matters herein contained, and the Performance thereof, and for apportioning the Costs of Issues, and for the Purpose of enforcing Uniformity of Practice in the Allowance of Costs in the said Courts, and of ensuring as far as may be practicable an equal Division of the Business of Taxation amongst the Masters of the said Courts, as in their Judgment shall be necessary or proper, and for that Purpose to meet from Time to Time as Occasion may require: and it shall further be lawful for the Judges of the said Courts, or any Eight or more of them, of whom the Chiefs of each of the said Courts shall be Three, from Time to Time to exercise all the Powers and Authority given to them by an Act of Parliament passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to enable the Judges of the Common Law at Westminster to alter the Forms of Pleading, with respect to any Matter herein contained relative to Practice or Pleading, anything in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act as to the Rules, Orders, or Regulations made in pursuance thereof shall be held applicable to any Rules, Orders, or Regulations which shall be made in pursuance of this Act: Provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to restrain the Authority or limit the Jurisdiction of the said Courts or the Judges thereof to make Rules or Orders, or otherwise to regulate and dispose of the Business therein.

13 & 14 Vict. c. 16.

New Forms of Writs and other Proceedings.

CCXXIV. Such new or altered Writs and Forms of Proceedings may be issued, entered, and taken, as may by the Judges of the said Courts, or any Eight or more of them, of whom the Chiefs of each of the said Courts shall be Three, be deemed necessary or expedient for giving Effect to the Provisions herein-before contained, and in such Forms as the Judges of such Courts respectively shall from Time to Time think fit to order; and such Writs and Proceedings shall be acted upon and enforced in such and the same Manner as Writs and Proceedings of the said Courts are now acted upon and enforced, or as near thereto as the Circumstances of the Case will admit; and any existing Writ or Proceeding, the Form of which shall be in any Manner altered in pursuance of this Act, shall nevertheless be of the same force and virtue as if no Alteration had been made therein, except so far as the Effect thereof may be varied by this Act.

Rules may be made by each Court for Government of its Officers.

CCXXV. It shall and may be lawful to and for the Judges of each of the said Courts from Time to Time to make such Rules and Orders for the Government and Conduct of the Ministers and Officers of their respective Courts, in and relating to the Distribution and Performance of the Duties and Business to be done and performed in the Execution of this Act, as such Judges may think fit and reasonable: Provided always, that no additional Charge be thereby imposed on the Suitors.

Effect of Injunction.

'And whereas it is expedient that Injunctions and Orders to stay Proceedings should be rendered 'more effectual:' Be it enacted as follows:

Injunctions and Orders to stay Proceedings to have a specific Effect.

CCXXVI. In case any Action, Suit, or Proceeding in any Court of Law or Equity shall be commenced, sued, or prosecuted, in disobedience of and contrary to any Writ of Injunction, Rule, or Order of either of the Superior Courts of Law or Equity at Westminster, or of any Judge thereof, in any other Court than that by or in which such Injunction may have been issued, or Rule or Order made, upon the Production to any such other Court or Judge thereof of such Writ of Injunction, Rule, or Order, the said other Court (in which such Action, Suit, or Proceeding may be commenced, prosecuted, or taken), or any Judge thereof, shall stay all further Proceedings contrary to any such Injunction, Rule, or Order; and thenceforth all further and subsequent Proceedings shall be utterly null and void to all Intents and Purposes: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be held to diminish, alter, abridge, or vary the Liability of any Person or Persons commencing, suing, or prosecuting any such Action, Suit, or Proceeding contrary to any Injunction, Rule, or Order of either of the Courts aforesaid, to any Attachment, Punishment, or other Proceeding to which any such Person or Persons are, may, or shall be liable in Cases of Contempt of either of the Courts aforesaid, in regard to the commencing, suing, or prosecuting such Action, Suit, or Proceeding.

And

And be it enacted as follows:

XIX. The Charges and Expenses of and attending any Survey and Valuation ordered to be made by any Court of Quarter Sessions in such Appeal as aforesaid shall be deemed Costs in such Appeal, and abide the Event thereof; and the Court before which any such Appeal is heard and determined may order the Costs in and about such Appeal to be paid by either Party, Appellant or Respondent, as they in their Discretion may think fit; but where any Appeal is made on the Ground that any Parish, Township, or Place is rated on a Sum beyond the full and fair annual Value of the Property therein, if the Court before which such Appeal is heard determine in favour of the Appellants, such Court shall ascertain the Costs and Charges incurred by such Appellants in and about such Appeal, and shall order the Treasurer of the County Rates to pay the same to such Appellants out of the public Stock of the County in his Hands.

Committee may revise Basis or Rate from Time to Time.

XX. Although no Appeal shall be made as aforesaid, it shall be competent to any Committee appointed as herein-before provided, and upon being so required by the Court of General or Quarter Sessions, from Time to Time to revise any such Basis or Standard for a County Rate being then in force in any County, for the Purpose of meeting any partial Changes that may have occurred in the rateable Value of Portions of the Property liable to be assessed, and to call for Information, and to exercise all the Powers herein-before authorized, and if, after due Inquiry and Investigation, it shall seem fit to such Committee to alter such Basis or Standard, they shall forthwith give Notice in Writing of such Alteration to any Parish or Place whose Basis or Standard they propose to alter, whether by diminishing or increasing it, and shall, upon some Day to be named in such Notice, hear and decide upon any Objection that may be made by any Person on behalf of such Parish or Place; and upon the Decision of such Committee as aforesaid to alter such Basis or Standard, they shall report such Alteration to the next or some subsequent General or Quarter Sessions, having given to each Parish or Place whose Basis or Standard is altered by such Report Notice thereof in Writing not less than Ten Days previous to such Sessions, and the Justices assembled thereat, after hearing the Objections, if any, that may be made by any Person duly authorized to represent any such Parish or Place, may make such Order as to them shall appear just for ascertaining and deciding upon such proposed Alteration, and any Order so made shall be binding upon all Parties concerned.

Justices in General or Quarter Sessions to make a fair and equal County Rate, whenever Circumstances appear to require it.

XXI. From and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace of the several Counties, or Divisions of Counties in England and Wales, assembled at their General or Quarter Sessions, or at any Adjournment or Adjournments thereof, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, whenever Circumstances shall appear to require it, to order and direct a fair and equal County Rate to be made, for all the Purposes to which the County Stock or Rate is now or shall hereafter be made liable by Law, according to the Basis or Standard for the Time being in force in such County or Division of a County; and for that Purpose to assess and tax every Parish, Township, and other Place, whether parochial or extra-parochial, within the respective Limits of their Commissions, or within such Divisions, rateably and equally, according to a certain Pound Rate (to be from Time to Time fixed and publicly declared by such Justices), upon the Basis or Standard herein-before mentioned, of the full and fair annual Value of the Property, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments rateable to the Relief of the Poor therein, or which in any Place not maintaining its Poor would be liable to be rated for the Relief of the Poor if the said last-mentioned Place were a Parish, any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof notwithstanding; and the Justices of the Peace shall in all Cases where the same may be necessary appoint proper Persons within such extra-parochial or other Places for the assessing, taxing, and rating such Extra-parochial Property, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and levying, collecting, and paying over such Assessment, Taxes, or Rates.

Parishes aggrieved may appeal.

XXII. If the Churchwarden or Churchwardens, Overseer or Overseers of the Poor, or other Inhabitant or Inhabitants of any Parish, Township, or Place, whether parochial or otherwise, where there is no Churchwarden or Overseer, or Person appointed to act as such, shall at any Time thereafter have Reason to think that such Parish, Township, or Place is aggrieved by any Rate or Assessment now existing, or hereafter to be made upon the Basis or Standard herein-before mentioned, either in pursuance of this Act or of any Act or Acts now in force, whether it be on account of the Proportions assessed upon the respective Parishes, Townships, or Places being unequal, or on account of some One or more of them being without sufficient Cause omitted altogether from the Rate, or on account of such Parish, Township, or Place being rated at a higher Proportion of the Pound Sterling according to the fair annual Value of the rateable Property therein, or on account of some other Parish or Parishes, Township or Townships, Place or Places being rated at a lower Proportion of the Pound Sterling according to the fair annual Value of the rateable Property therein than has been fixed and declared by the Justices of the Peace of the said County in Sessions assembled as the Basis of the Rate of the said County, or on account of the altered State of the Value of the Property assessed, or any Part thereof, or shall have any other just Cause of Complaint whatsoever, it shall be lawful for such Churchwarden or Churchwardens, Overseer or Overseers of the Poor, or other Inhabitant or Inhabitants where there is no Churchwarden or Overseer, or Person appointed to act as such, to appeal to the Justices of the Peace for the County at the next Quarter Sessions of the Peace after such Cause of Appeal shall have arisen, against such Part of the Rate only as may affect the Parish or Parishes, Township or Townships, Place or Places which are unequally rated, or which shall appear to be over-rated or under-rated, or omitted altogether from the Rate: Provided always, that Fourteen clear Days Notice in Writing previous to the First Day of such last-mentioned Quarter Sessions shall be given by the Parties intending to appeal to the Parties against whose Rate the Appeal is to be made, also to the Clerk of the Peace of the County, and the Hundred Constable, of the Grounds of such Appeal and the Intention to try such Appeal at such Quarter Session of the Peace; and the said Justices are hereby empowered to hear and finally determine the same, and either to confirm such Parts of the Rate as have been appealed against, or to correct such Inequalities, Disproportions, or Omissions as shall be proved to exist therein, as well in respect of the Basis or Standard as in the Assessment of the Rate made thereon, in such Manner as to them the said Justices shall appear fair, just, and equitable, anything in this Act, or any former Act or Acts, or any Law, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding: Provided nevertheless, that upon such Appeal no such Rate shall be quashed or destroyed in regard to any other Parish, Township, or Place, unless in Cases where the Justices of the Peace of any County in Quarter Sessions assembled, or the major Part of them, shall deem it necessary to proceed to the making of an entire new Rate, and shall proceed therein, according to the Provisions of this Act.

Rate to be raised, notwithstanding Appeals, until Determination of Justices.
